

MILLION JOBS

DEPEND ON THE U.S. TRANSPORTATION NETWORK

The transportation infrastructure network is the backbone of our economy.

Nearly 80 million American jobs in tourism, manufacturing, transportation and warehousing, agriculture and forestry, general construction, mining, retailing and wholesaling rely on highways, bridges and rail systems every day.

That's one big payroll. These industries provide a total payroll of $2.8 trillion and their employees contribute more than $233 billion annually in state and federal payroll taxes.

So it makes sense to get working on passage of the overdue highway/transit investment bill. A lot of working Americans are depending on it.
